New York News

NEW YORK March ... A dispatch says the contest for control of the Erie Railroad at last closing, narrowed to two London parties One is Heath & Raphael and the other Bischoffsheim & Goldschmidt In the Stock Exchange it is generally entertained that if Heath & Raphael will succeed a third rail is to be laid and Erie put in connection with the Canada Southern and other roads of the west and northwest by way of Chicago but if Bischoffsheim & Goldschmidt get control a combination will be closed with the Atlantic & Great Western though both hold so heavily that either can cause a panic Yesterday was another day of excitement in the Stock Exchange over the rise in Erie Financiers say that transactions are mainly on the part of English capitalists who are trying to get hold of the road But one failure is thus far reported—that of one insignificant house The Erie epidemic was renewed this morning After opening stocks suddenly tumbled from 66 to 50 owing it is reported to a decline in London Many bull operators straightened

General Butler appeared in the United States Court yesterday as counsel for Sadie Wilkinson, in her suit for damages for breach of promise in marriage on the part of Brick Pomeroy

The prosecution of the so called Geneva Watch Company came up yesterday before Police Justice Ledwith. After evidence being given showing the concern to be selling bogus watches the District Attorney was called to the stand as a witness for Silas H Elias His objection to testifying for the prosecution was overruled He admitted there was no such concern as the Geneva Watch Company and that the firm names attached to their circular were fictitious

When the Senate Arms Committee met to day Sumner appeared and protested against the summons served upon him, and took oath with a protest that the Chairman was disqualified to act in that capacity He however testified under protest He knew nothing of this question until the 23d or 24th of December when a friend in the Senate (not Schurz) first mentioned the facts Afterwards he saw Schurz who had seen the papers Sumner at Schurz's suggestion saw Chambrun from whom he received copies of letters from Remington and of letters from the Secretary of War to the Secretary of State He gave a circumstantial account of the steps taken by himself previous to the ... of his resolution In response to ... he had numerous ... on the subject, but declined to give ... He had handed them over to Schurz. ... declared that he considered it to be his duty to move for an investigation

Mexican Raiders in Texas.

NEW YORK March 26—A special dispatch from Brownsville, Texas says the Grand Jury of the Federal Court, Judge Morrill, presiding, indicted the Mexican General Cortinas for levying war against the United States and made a presentment of facts that armed bands of Mexican raiders are stealing cattle on the Texan border The charges state that a depredatory war has been waged since 1865 by Mexican bandits and that a reign of terror exists between the Neuces and Rio Grand, and that informers are threatened with death The presentment also says that Juarez has had a petition to remove Cortinez without effect Evidence shows that since the close of the American civil war, an average of 500 cattle have been stolen monthly the value of which is estimated at $6,300 000 During that period four revenue inspectors have been killed by marauders Officers are in peril of their lives and the United States force is inadequate to protect the border Judge Merrill and General McCook indorse the statement in the presentment

WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional

WASHINGTON March 27—Senate—On motion Hamlin's resolution to pay five thousand dollars out of the Senate contingent fund for expenses of the Army Investigating Committee passed

The House bill prohibiting the enlistment of minors in the military service without the consent of parents and guardians was reported

The committee reported without amendment the bill requiring all votes for Representatives in Congress to be by ballot

Sherman said the adoption of amendments to the tea and coffee bill had changed somewhat the plan of the committee, and he believed that if the Senate would pass the bill now with these amendments, the House would concur and there would be an end of the tariff question this session The bill which had been considered in Committee of the Whole and reported to the Senate with an amendment providing that it shall go into effect on the 1st of July was concurred in

Trumbull said that having failed yesterday to get salt put on the free list, he would now move as an amendment a provision in the first section of the bill as reported from the Committee on Finance for a reduction of the duty on salt one half

Blair moved to make salt free He denounced the tax on salt as most unjustifiable and oppressive, and spoke at length against the protective policy. Speaking of the salt monopoly, he stated on the authority of Mr Wells that an Ondago Company had one year made six dividends, one of which was 12½ per cent

Conkling denied the statement and said the capital invested in the manufacture of salt paid 7 per cent

Fenton read the sworn statement of the Onondaga Salt Co that their profits for the past two years had only been 3½ per cent

Blair said that monopolists whenever they ask Congress for a law that would enable them to live at the expense of the rest of the people they were always ready to make statements of this kind, expressed a total disbelief in the statements

Morton said at the request of friends with whom he was accustomed to act in the Senate he had desired to withdraw his amendment for abolishing internal taxes intending hereafter to seek the same object by another bill

Sumner moved to amend by making books in ancient and foreign languages free

Bayard moved to amend and make free stationary and paintings imported by owners

Without further action the Senate adjourned

HOLLY WORKS

THE ADVANTAGES OF THE SYSTEM SET FORTH—COMMUNICATION FROM MR T T FLAGLER PRESIDENT OF THE HOLLY COMPANY

PORTLAND March 26 1872

P C Schuyler, Jr Secretary Holly Works Committee:—Upon leaving your city I desire to put in definite form some of the leading considerations which commend the Holly system as a means of water supply and fire protection for your city

1 It is no longer to be regarded as an experiment. It has been adopted after thorough examination by forty five cities and villages of different size and varying conditions of service. Among these are the following the size of Portland, and larger

Name	Population
Lockport N Y	14,253
Auburn N Y	17,000
Minneapolis, Min	18,000
Ogdensburg N Y	12,000
Binghamton, N Y	16,000
Peoria, Ill	22,849
Canton, Ohio	10,000
Dayton Ohio	30,855
Covington Ky	24,505
Columbus, Ohio	31,880
Indianapolis, Ind	48,337
Jackson, Mich	11,448
Buffalo N Y	117,714
Saratoga Springs N Y	10,000
Cumberland Md	10,000
Evansville Ind	21,830
Schenectady N Y	11,026
Syracuse N Y	43,051
Des Moines Iowa	16,073
Portsmouth, Ohio	10,000
Atlanta, Ga	32,000
East Saginaw Mich	11,350
Memphis Tenn	40,226
Denver Colo	10,000

The smallest of these twenty four cities it will be noticed, has a population about equal to that of Portland, and range up to about five times that number Buffalo, New York, which is in part supplied by the Holly plan has over ten times the population of this city

2 Some of these cities not only have larger populations than Portland but have elevations as high or higher than are to be overcome in supplying water here To say nothing of several of them which approximate in height to the highest point to be supplied in this city, there is Peoria, which is in part supplied at an altitude of 209 feet above the pumps, and Atlanta, which receives its entire supply at an elevation of 300 feet above the pumping machinery In the latter case the service is rendered still more severe because the pumping works are placed on Peach Tree creek, four miles from the point where distribution begins

3 In two of the above cities, Buffalo and Syracuse the Holly plan has been supplemented to make up the deficiencies of Reservoir Works. In Syracuse the old Works are owned by a chartered Company, and have been in operation some 15 or 20 years To say nothing of their inherent defects the city had outgrown their capacity The Reservoir stands 166 feet high, and the water is carried into it by natural flow After examination of the comparative cost and advantages of securing an additional supply by the Reservoir and Holly plan, the latter was adopted by the Company. In giving his reasons for this preference the President, Hon L W Leavenworth, gave the following, among others "Reservoirs are not only unnecessary, but entirely superfluous If they are high enough to give the necessary pressure for fire purposes, they are quite too high for the ordinary delivery of water If they are low enough for the ordinary delivery, they are entirely unfit for fire purposes Under the new system, devised by Mr. Holly, of Lockport, these ends are perfectly accomplished by his very ingenious machinery" These opinions of the President of the Company were concurred in by his associates, and a set of Holly machinery is to day drawing water from Onondaga river and pumping it into the main leading from the reservoir, thus increasing the quantity and also supplying and regulating the pressure so as to fully supply the highest points of distribution Where pressure is needed beyond what is due to altitude of Reservoir, the latter is cut off and the entire supply is placed upon the Holly machinery In Buffalo, Reservoir works have been in operation about twenty years. The city has grown beyond its capacity and above the reach of its height. The Committee of the Common Council on Water, after full examination, reported to the Council that in their opinion 'the Holly System can be successfully applied to our present works, and made equal to the wants of this city for all future time To purchase land and erect a new Reservoir with the necessary pumping means to connect it with the present works would entail a cost of five hundred thousand dollars Even then, the altitude would not be sufficient to give a supply above the first stories of buildings in the highest part of the city With the Holly system the pressure upon the pipes can be so graduated as to supply the water to any height which may be required. Your Committee, therefore, regard it as the most convenient as well as the most effective " These considerations prevailed, and to-day a set of Holly machinery is supplying that part of Buffalo above the reach of the old reservoir and reinforcing the supply in the upper portion of the district which gravitation pressure from reservoir height does not reliably reach

4. The selection of the Holly plan of works has in several instances, been made because, all things considered, it was deemed preferable to supply of water by natural flow when brought any considerable distance. In such cases, it was found as the result of careful surveys and estimates, that the various structures and laying of pipes of sufficient size such as would prevent loss of head and consequent pressure by friction, involved a cost above the comparative advantages of the plan, among them, the Saratoga Springs, Dunkirk, New York

5. Wherever Holly Works have been put in operation the opposition to them has always died out, and the public sentiment in their favor has become strong and unanimous The Mayor of Laporte, Indiana, recently made the following statement "There was a vast amount of opposition to putting in the Holly Works here The thing had to be fought at every step Some thought it would be a failure, while others feared the expense would bankrupt the corporation But we got the thing through and now there is not a man in the place who is not proud of the enterprise and thoroughly pleased with its workings. Space alone prevents multiplying similar testimonials

6 It has been found by experience that filtration in connection with Holly Works is more reliable than the reservoir settling process in securing to communities the inestimable boon of pure and wholesome water The latter on account of inadequate size fails to relieve the water which passes through it of its impurities Most of the works upon Holly's plan have for their source of supply a flowing stream—generally a river—and natural or artificial filtration has in no case failed to transform the turbid flow into a clear palatable and wholesome beverage

7 As compared with Reservoir Works of suitable size and height, the original cost of work upon the Holly plan is a large per cent less than the reservoir or gravitation plan The Holly machinery will necessarily cost more than if its service was simply to lift water to a fixed altitude, but this increase does not approximate to the cost of the reservoir and its appurtenances, which are dispensed with by the direct pumping system

8 Holly's plan economizes power since it only lifts water to the precise point of distribution, instead of elevating the entire volume into a reservoir at an extreme height in order to send it by gravitation to consumers. Hence machinery of given capacity will deliver more water per day and at less running expenses by the Holly plan than can be furnished by the reservoir system

9 The varying pressure by the Holly plan not only secures a reliable and uniform daily water supply, but its susceptibility to increase when required yields unequaled protection to property from destruction by fire In comparison with movable engines there is a saving of time in the application of water to a fire the machinery being stronger and in duplicate (or triplicate) the fire streams are not liable to the frequent and disastrous interruptions which occur from disabled engines—and it draws from an unfailing source of supply instead of cisterns which so frequently give out and with calamitous results On account of these and other advantages over the movable fire engines, fires however threatening when discovered are almost universally suppressed within the building in which they originate and with trifling loss

10 Underwriters recognize the introduction of this new agency for suppressing fires and universally make large reductions in the rates of insurance The testimony on this point is concurrent and conclusive in every place where Holly works are put in operation

11 Another important advantage which follows is dispensing with the costly and comparatively inefficient movable engine service and the saving of the expense which it entails upon taxpayers Said the committee of the city of Mansfield, (Ohio) Council, in their report recommending the adoption of the Holly Works into that city "In all the cities we visited where the Reservoir or stand pipe system was in use the movable fire engine was used for extinguishing fires, and in all the cities we visited where the Holly direct pumping plan was in active operation movable engines were dispensed with"

12 The originality and value of this invention of Mr Holly has been recognized by the Government of the United States, for securing to communities these advantages while dispensing with reservoirs and stand pipes in the daily supply and the movable engine for suppressing fire These I think ... not only the ... but the plan or method by which it is achieved. Said the Commissioner of Patents in a recent decision: "The test of invention is the result attained" Governed by this rule never had an inventor stronger ground for a patent franchise than Birdsill Holly, for his grand and beneficent discovery which, as predicted by a distinguished Canadian engineer (T C Keefer, Esq), "will doubtless create a revolution in the existing system of water works throughout the United States

13 The fulfillment of this prediction is fast hastening. Although it is eight years since Mr. Holly began his experiments, it is only some two or three years since the plan began to attract public attention The Holly Company constructed fifteen sets of water works last year, and has already ten contracts to be completed this year,—and is in correspondence and negotiation with more than sixty other places for similar work.

14 This water works improvement will not cast a burden on Portland. Giving it due credit for the revenues from water-takers the diminution of expense and taxes for engine service, and the reduction of insurance rates, and it will amount to a sum which will pay ... bonds and ... and also provide a sinking fund which will retire the construction bonds at an early day

With thanks to yourself and other members of the committee for courtesies ... I am,

Yours truly,
T. T. FLAGLER, President

FRIDAY MORNING MARCH 29 187

The Case Closed

Here [is] the coolest thing since the glacial period After wasting a great deal of ink in the endeavor to place the Republican party of Oregon in a false position as an advocate and defender of a transportation monopoly and insisting with all possible vehemence that the Democratic party must carry the ensuing election in order to regulate the rates of transportation the Herald now confesses that the law is settled against its position But it proposes to reverse the settled principles of law In order to explode that paper's assumptions we have taken occasion to show that railroad companies organized in this State under existing laws have 'vested rights' that these rights cannot be impaired by subsequent legislation, and that there is no power in the Legislative Assembly to go back of the law under which these Companies have incorporated and to regulate the rates of transportation After clamoring for several days on the subject the Herald now admits that this is law as settled by the highest tribunal of the United States But it don't propose to acquiese in this settlement—though exactly what it is going to do about it does not yet appear Three or four years ago the Democracy were making a campaign in favor of taxing United States bonds. It was shown that the highest judicial tribunal had repeatedly pronounced against it. But Democracy was not inclined to submit to the decision, and proposed to appeal from it as the Herald now appeals in this case We have not heard however, that the bonds have yet been subjected to taxation

This doctrine of 'vested rights,' our neighbor tells us 'had its origin in the celebrated Dartmouth College case where the ponderous logic and specious eloquence of Daniel Webster prevailed' Observe here how Webster is 'whistled down the wind' by one who is anxious to get a pretext that will serve as a basis for clap-trap appeals for an election in Oregon. Webster's logic on that occasion did prevail The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States was in accord with it The logic was unanswerable. It settled forever a great principle of law. Says a writer in the American Law Register for January last 'Since the Dartmouth College case it has been admitted on all hands that the charters of incorporated companies are contracts, which the Legislature cannot alter or amend, without express power to do so is reserved' This exactly covers the case which we have been arguing with the Herald. The question is not one "yet to be decided," as that paper claims. It is one that has long been decided, and no reputable authority, anywhere, calls it in question

To sum up this discussion It has been charged that the Republican party is in league with a transportation monopoly, and that the only hope for the people is to elect a Democratic Legislature, which will regulate the rates of transportation. But it appears on examination of the subject that the Legislature has no power over it. Hence the question is in no sense a political one, and can in no way be affected by the result of an election. The assertion, therefore, that the Republicans have sold out their party to a monopoly, and that they have pledged themselves to prevent a reduction of freights and fares, is absurd, groundless and false. No Legislature can touch this question, because it is a settled principle of law that the charters of incorporated companies are contracts, and cannot be altered or amended by Legislative authority, until power to do so is expressly reserved This power over railroads incorporated in Oregon has not been reserved, on the contrary it is stipulated in their charters that they may prescribe such rates for transportation as they may deem proper This right they will be able to maintain, no matter which party carries elections The Democratic organ which started out with such a flourish of trumpets to make a case against the Republican party is now effectually wound up The subject is one which has nothing to do with party politics, and all the organ's howlings have been in vain.

The Closest Analogy Ever Seen in Our Politics

We are told by the dispatches that great preparations are making for the Republican anti-Republican Convention which is to assemble at Cincinnati the first week in May This movement is so exact a repetition of the movement against Lincoln in 1864 that it may be as well to go over the salient facts in regard to the opposition that manifested itself against Lincoln's renomination, just as a like opposition is now manifested against the renomination of Grant

Early in 1864 the Republican Conventions of various States began to declare in favor of the renomination of Lincoln, as they have recently been pronouncing for the renomination of Grant. A counter movement of soured and disaffected politicians soon began to manifest itself Then, as now, Missouri was the principal source of the opposition A Lincoln resolution offered in the Legislature of that State, was voted down. Soon after a circular appeared, signed by S. C Pomeroy, Chairman of the National Executive Committee" This circular recited that even if desirable it was impossible to re-elect Mr Lincoln it reproached his make-shift policy it favored the one-term principle it lamented the increase of governmental patronage, and eulogized Salmon P Chase Nothing, however, of importance came of it. The Republican Convention was called to meet at Baltimore in June but about a month after the call was issued a letter was addressed to the National Committee signed heavily by New York Republican politicians, asking to have the Convention postponed in order to give time for discussion and thus to lessen the duration and allay the acrimony of the Presidential strife This word of advice was not acted upon however In May, three calls were issued by as many disaffected bodies for an anti administration convention to meet in Cleveland on the 31st of May B Gratz Brown of Missouri, now again a leading bolter led one of these protesting organizations, called the 'People's Provisional Committee Answering these calls a ticket on the "war to the hilt no compromise, one-term policy free speech free press and habeas corpus inviolate platform was put in the field Fremont was nominated for President and Cochrane for Vice-President Fremont was the true embodiment of the Sumner Trumbull Gratz Brown movement of that day He was disinterested—was Fremont He had no personal aims—he conceded as much in his letter of acceptance! His own decided preference, he said was not to be a candidate but if Lincoln was nominated he saw no alternative but to organize against him every element of conscientious opposition etc He denounced Lincoln's administration in a style fully ahead of Grant's conscientious opponents He called it an administration marked at home by disregard to constitutional rights by its violation of personal liberty and the liberty of the press and as a crowning shame by its abandonment of the right of asylum, etc

The Republican Convention met in Baltimore on the 7th June and renominated Mr Lincoln by a vote of 492 against 22 for Gen Grant The element analogous to the Possum Democracy of 1872 did not meet until August 29th when that most characteristic Possum G B McClellan was nominated for President and Geo H Pendleton for Vice President Then events thickened and hastened The campaign was brief Sherman en route for the sounding sea captured Atlanta and the gallant Farragut won immortality in Mobile harbor These great events were announced on the 2d of September and in fifteen days Fremont capitulated in a spiteful letter Then the conflict was narrowed to a fight between Lincoln and McClellan The jeers and jibes which greeted poor McClellan and his adherents when as a result of all their efforts at damnifying the administration three States only cast their votes for the great ditch digger were both incisive and universal The result was the triumphant re election of Lincoln by a majority both of the popular and electoral vote The conscientious opposition were willing to be forgiven and the defeated Democrats remained in exile It remains to be seen what will be the result of the present conscientious movement It is certain however, that the comparison so far between it and the similar movement of eight years ago is the closest analogy ever seen in our politics The Chicago Evening Mail is certainly right when it says that he would be a poor politician indeed who excluded the campaign of 1864 from the data necessary to the solution of the present political problem

It is a curious matter to observe how eager the Democratic party always is to try to make a point or establish a case against their own country Here is an organ of that party asserting that if we press England to a settlement on the Alabama claims we shall have to pay Germany an indemnity for having sold arms and munitions to France. Now our Government did not sell arms and munitions to France. If private parties in the United States did so they had a perfect right to do it under well settled principles of public law It has been established that arms and munitions were sold by dealers in this country both to France and Germany The parties furnishing the arms took the risk of having them seized, but no principle of public law was violated. During the Crimean war Colt and other American dealers in arms sold vast quantities of rifles and pistols to England, and Russia never complained of it. Nor has Bismarck ever complained that American dealers ever sold arms to the French In fact, agents of Germany bought arms in America during the war with France But our Government had nothing to do with any of these transactions Our case against England rests on totally different principles But of course all such papers as the Oregon Herald would be glad to injure or embarrass their own country

We publish to-day a very interesting communication setting forth the advantages of the Holly system of water supply This communication is from a source which entitles it to attention Mr Holly, President of the Holly Company, in conferences held by him with numbers of our citizens, impressed them with his thorough acquaintance with the whole subject of water supply We trust that his communication may receive the attention from citizens which the subject merits. We are paying the most extortionate and unheard of rates for water Shall we continue to do so, or shall we provide means of relief?

The Champion Somnambulist of the Age—A Most Remarkable Case

[From the Louisville Ledger, March 6th.]

Louisville has, at last, a profound sensation, and one that will attract attention throughout the entire country We heard the particulars of this sensation on Monday, but they sounded so improbable that we did not take the trouble to investigate them, inasmuch as we did not deem the story sufficiently credible for publication But one of the morning papers having alluded to the matter, we this forenoon dispatched a reporter to the locality for the purpose of ascertaining all the facts in the case He furnishes the following details

About the middle of January a German named Jacob Wilhartz hired a house and opened a general furnishing store on Fourteenth street near Portland avenue His stock of goods was well selected, and Wilhartz had the appearance of an industrious and respectable gentleman It was soon noticed, however that his store was frequently closed up for several days together and during these intervals Wilhartz was never seen Then he would suddenly make his appearance open the store and attend to business for a few days His singular conduct attracted attention, and soon became a subject of comment in the neighborhood and suspicion grew up that something was wrong about the man

Officer Slater of the Fourteenth street depot heard of the case and went to work with his usual vigor to investigate it. His investigations elicited the following facts Wilhartz is subject to remarkable periods of somnolence His landlord stated that at one time his house had been closed for sixteen days, during all of which time Wilhartz had not left his house or bed The landlord called several times for his rent but found the house closed, the windows and doors securely bolted and was unable to gain admission Finally by pounding upon the doors and windows and making a great noise he succeeded in arousing the occupant, who lives entirely alone Wilhartz came to the door muffled up in a long strip of carpet and presented a most sleepy and bewildered appearance He paid his rent and again retired to bed where he had been for nearly a week before being aroused

Officer Slater states that during these intervals of somnolence he has carefully watched the house and is certain Wilhartz has never left the room in which he sleeps He has now been asleep nearly five days, and at the hour at which this is written he still slumbers as profoundly as if he had been in bed only a few hours During these spells of somnolence the sleeping man of course partakes of no nourishment and how his life is preserved during such long periods of fasting is a mystery and the most remarkable feature in this truly remarkable case He is said to be in excellent health and rather improves physically during his long naps The case is one that will doubtless attract the attention of our medical men Officer Slater and the immediate neighbors of Wilhartz are quite confident that no deception is being practiced by him—but that the case is one of genuine somnolence The case is one that should certainly be investigated

We are told that Washington county Ga with a population of 16 000, does not owe a cent and has not a prisoner in jail We are uncertain whether to congratulate the people on this apparently blissful state of things or not because we do not know whether they are not sadly in need of many things which they can only have by incurring debt and do not feel sure that if justice were done their jail would not be well filled

A Washington special of the 18th says Sumner this morning authorized your correspondent to say that the reported conversation of Senator Wilson wherein he (Sumner) is quoted as telling his colleague that their political paths must soon openly diverge, is a wretched humbug and invention of some enemy who seems determined to misrepresent his position No such conversation took place and Mr Sumner has not said that he intended soon to assail the President and his administration in the Senate chamber with all the power at his command

A Texas paper of a late date in the course of an article on General Albert Sidney Johnston, written by a professed intimate friend says that his high sense of honor was the cause of his death Because of his defeat at the battle of Donelson he was bitterly denounced by officers jealous of his fame, and severe and untruthful articles published by a portion of the New Orleans press This so mortified and exasperated him that in the battle of Shiloh, he threw aside his rank as a General and went foremost in the fight where he received his mortal wound

We find the following in the Boston Globe correspondence This session is no exception to others preceding Presidential elections While the House of Representatives has the merit of unusual industry, and equally as marked abstinence from political or heated debate of any kind, we recall the period of 1863, when Henry Winter Davis in the House and Ben Wade in the Senate led a party revolt against Mr Lincoln If anything antagonism to his views and policy was fiercer in the House than in the Senate and the circumstances are contrasted with those now existing Friends of the administration gather considerable comfort from what is undoubtedly the fact, that no opposition has as yet been organized among Republicans in the popular branch This is referred to now to illustrate the fact that the House has, so far, done all the work

THE COMET CANARD

An Eastern journal has the following remarks on the story of the coming comet that has lately attracted much attention in Europe

The American papers have been making themselves merry over the threatened destruction of our planet by a comet whose arrival in August must according to an alleged report from a Swiss astronomer (M Plantamour) engulf us utterly for it is described as of unparalleled magnitude, and coming directly against us leaving no hope for us but in the possible diverting attraction of other celestial bodies. The English papers have generally published the report, and a scientific journal of London says that it 'has had serious effect there alarming many weak people making many weaker people positively sick'

Such canards do much mischief Superstitious minds seize on them with avidity and suffer from them greatly There is apparently no foundation whatever for the report attributed to the Geneva astronomer He has nothing himself in the extent he [illegible] on this subject It is a newspaper [illegible]

There are hundreds of glasses turned every night to the heavens and not one among the many night watchers in the observatories scattered over the civilized world has announced the detection of any such new and monstrous a body though minor important comets are of almost continual discovery Kepler declared they were as numerous in the heavens as fish in the sea, and Arago says that 350 000 of them pass through our own system With all their eccentricities and the incredible periods of some of them (one of them at least, receding from the sun fourteen times the distance of Neptune) we have computed the orbits of about three hundred

Scientists have no fear of comets The surest thing ascertained about them is that their density is extremely slight They are remarkably sensitive to the disturbing influence of the planets, but have no appreciable influence whatever on the planetary motions however near In the last century one actually got in among the satellites of Jupiter, but it neither affected him nor his comparatively small attendants they went steadily on, while the vaporous intruder was turned quite out of his course and has had ever since to drive about a truant in another orbit. The course of Biela's famous comet is wholly within our system—its perihelion lying within our own planet's orbit and its aphelion not much beyond the orbit of Jupiter Its orbit almost crosses our path but it has never done us or any other planet the least harm Olbers calculated that in 1832 it would be within twenty thousand miles of the earth, and would envelop us. Physicists would be glad to catch one of these fugitives so near, they would like to get good hold of his tail, at least The spectroscope has given them some new powers with which they are very anxious to ply the flying monsters

The density or rather the specific levity of comets satisfactorily settles the question of any danger from them Not only do they fail to disturb the motions of the planets or even the moons of Jupiter (the smallest not more than a fourth of the diameter of the earth) but we can see stars through the substance of the train and even the corona though their light must transpierce it for millions of miles Their densities are pronounced by many astronomers to be beyond a doubt, many thousand times less than that of our atmosphere Were we, then, to be enveloped by one, its substance could hardly have an appreciable effect upon us, it could no more penetrate our atmosphere than fragments of cork could sink into the ocean Scientists believe that in 1861 we actually did pass through a comet

These remarks on the general subject may not be uninteresting to some of our readers though we pronounce the Swiss story a sheer canard

Suicide of a Boy from Shame

A very sad occurrence took place in the town of Eagle Portland county, Michigan, on the 20th of February Frederick Scaddin a boy of sixteen and step son of Monroe Whitmore was prevailed upon by a larger boy who it is reported had escaped from the Reform School, to take a sum of money from the house of his step-father with the intention of running away He had been treated very indulgently, and it was evident that he began to repent of the step he had taken almost immediately after, but feared to break his promise with the boy The plan was finally carried out the money stolen, and the boy left his home in the evening He told another boy of his plans and these were communicated to his father in less than two hours, who at once started out to find him. Meanwhile the poor boy had thoroughly repented, and although late at night had started back for his home On his way he met a young man who had been apprised of the facts who thoughtlessly said to him 'Young man, you had better look out for yourself, for your father is after you with the Sheriff

This terribly frightened him and directly after seeing his father's team coming with two men in the wagon he believed what the young man told him to be true and getting over the fence hid until they passed He then went on toward home and when near the house was seen by his mother who went to him and said 'Freddy, you have come back haven't you? Come into the house

No mother,' he said 'I have been too wicked I cannot come into the house

His mother put her hand on his shoulder and tried to persuade him to come in and that everything would be made right 'No mother, he replied, 'I have been so wicked, I cannot go in and I am going to shoot myself and as he said it he put a small pistol to his head and fired The ball took effect about two inches above and a little back of the right ear and passed straight across his head, lodging inside the skull on the other side Medical aid was procured but the wound was pronounced fatal

[From the Era]

The office of City Surveyor has been declared vacant by the Trustees.

W. W Thayer, City Attorney, concludes an opinion of the litigant law as follows: "I am of the opinion, therefore, that it is not necessary to the validity of the proceedings of the Board of Trustees of the city of East Portland referred to, that publication be made in the official organ of the county, but that the legal advertising can be done in any newspaper prescribed by its charter, and that the terms of the charter absolutely controls that matter

A REMARKABLE CURE OF PALSY

WM. BURDEN A STOCK RAISER OF WILLOW CREEK WASCO CO OREGON LOST THE USE OF HIS LEFT ARM BY PALSY [illegible] IN TEN MINUTES BY DR ABORN COR NER THIRD AND MORRISON STREETS PORTLAND

To the Afflicted:—I wish to state that I lost the use of my left arm from my shoulder to the end of my fingers [by] a stroke of palsy I could not raise my hand [illegible] from my side and was fearful that there was no cure for me My friends at the Dalles advised me to visit Portland and place myself under the care of Dr Aborn. I arrived at Portland last evening by the Dalles boat, and immediately called at Dr Aborn's office and made my case known The Doctor commenced treatment at once and in ten minutes time, to my great surprise and joy, he performed a complete cure so that I now have the use of my arm hand and fingers and can raise my arm up over my head with as much ease as I can raise my right arm This certainly is a very remarkable cure, and in my estimation speaks volumes to the skill of Dr Aborn I am stopping at the American Exchange Hotel, and will leave on the boat to-morrow for home I am a stock raiser and reside at Willow creek Wasco county, Oregon eighty miles south of the Dalles

What Spring Brings With It.

Regarded from a medical stand point Spring is not the delectable season described by vernal poets On the contrary its yield of intermittent fevers Millions at tacks rheumatic pains disorders of the stomach nervous complaints and pulmonary diseases is almost as large as its crop of violets snow drops and cherry blossoms. The faviest seeds of innumerable maladies rise with the morning mists and are sent broadcast by the vapors of night Who can resist their mephitic influence? Certainly not the weak by nature or those whose nervous energies have been overtaxed by mental or physical labor, unless they tone and invigorate their systems, and thus enable them to cope with the unhealthy influences by which they are surrounded

The only medicinal agent by which this object can be rapidly and safely accomplished is the great vegetable restorant and invigorant Hostetter's Stomach Bitters The operation of the celebrated specific is four fold It strengthens the digestive organs regulates the secretions [illegible] the condition of the blood and [illegible] a regular habit of body and thereby imparts such vigor and elasticity to the whole physical structure as to render it capable of resisting the action of the poisonous miasma with which the spring atmosphere is always to some extent impregnated It is the [illegible] ready and certain means of escaping the diseases prevalent at this season, or (if they have already fastened upon the system) of conquering them speedily and thoroughly The flavor of a medicine is not of much consequence provided it do its work properly but of Hostetter's Bitters it may be fairly said that they effect a cure without outraging the palate by a sense of taste

THURSDAY EVENING, March 28, 1872.

Gold in New York, 110.

Portland Legal Tender quotations, 90½c buying and 91½c selling.

Gold Bars, 800 fine.

Exchange on San Francisco, ¼ per cent. premium; on New York, 1¼ per cent. prem. Telegraphic transfers on San Francisco, 1¼ per cent; on New York, 1½ per cent. prem.

The available supply of coin is light, with an unusual active inquiry, which causes the money market to rule exceedingly stringent with great complaint from all in consequence. We have been informed that there are several large amounts awaiting investment that has been collected from parties whose obligations were due. This probably, if correct, is one cause of the extreme stringency in the money market.

A company has been formed for working the Galena mines on the Santiam river, and articles of incorporation were filed to-day with H. B. Morse, P. C. Schuyler and B. G. Whitehouse as incorporators; capital $480,000.

The steamship Ajax with freight and passengers from San Francisco is due Saturday morning and the steamship Pacific with freight only is due Saturday night.

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW.

Produce Market.

BREAD—Quotable, Soda, 7c; Picnic, 7c; Butter, 7c; Jenny Lind, 11c; Ginger snaps, 11c; Pilot, extra, 6½c; Medium, 5c; Navy, 4c.

WHEAT—For the past week under review we note sales of extra choice at $1 90 ℔ cental sacked. Farmers and others in the interior should remember that our quotations are for different grades—shipping, milling and extra choice. Shipping grades command the lowest pri[illegible] by 5@10c ℔ 100lbs less than milling; extra choice commands from 2½@5c ℔ 100lbs more than milling, so that when we give shippers offers farmers should govern themselves accordingly. Liverpool quotations come through fluctuating—one day 12s, next 11s 9d to 11s 11d, all public dispatches, no private received. Since our last the Almatia sailed with about 4,000 centals for San Francisco. The Oriflamme, owing to the freight offering of Flour, was unable to take out any Wheat. The Sparkling Dew has not been laid on for Liverpool yet. Receipts are falling off although reports concur in giving large amount in the country. We quote shipping at $1 65@1 70 ℔ cental sacked. The steamship Idaho for San F[illegible] took out 2,000 centals.

FLOUR—The demand for both export and local wants has been fairly active. The steamship California could not take all offering for Puget Sound and Victoria, so the Gussie Telfair will take on for Port Townsend and Neah Bay. Without an improvement in [illegible] but little will be manufactured before next [illegible]. The shipments to California since our last aggregate all of 7,000 bbls; to Puget Sound and Victoria, 3,000 bbls. Receipts are large, with no marked [illegible] in stocks owing to the supplies being marketed in San Francisco. We continue to quote extra of standard brands in jobbing lots at $6 ℔ bbl; choice country, $5 50@5 75; superfine and outside brands, $4@5 25; fine, $4 75.

OATS—A better feeling characterizes the market here [illegible] One of our largest consumers ordered from San Francisco, costing him delivered at stable $2 07 ℔ 100lbs. We quote California at 2½c ℔ lb; Oregon, 2¼c. Jobbing at an advance.

BARLEY—[illegible] from San F[illegible] to the high prices ruling in Walla Walla [illegible] shipments from that locality.

ONIONS—Another advance has been [illegible] the San Fra[illegible] market. [illegible] ℔ lb.

FEED—Market exhibits [illegible] Bran at $22 50 ℔ ton; Middlings [illegible] 42 50 ℔ ton.

FLAX SEED—We are pl[illegible] to note [illegible] tion to this important branch of [illegible] The imports into the Eastern [illegible] are increasing each year and high pr[illegible] Calcutta advices give an advancing market which will tend to advance prices still further East.

OIL MEAL—Market rules [illegible] at all rates.
